VOLUNTEER SURGEON

Dr. Chris is a practicing surgeon who traveled to Somalia, Kenya, Mexico and Bolivia providing life-saving treatments to patients. Through these efforts he came to understand the dangers of government healthcare and why we must fight to preserve our system while reducing costs.

RETIRED LT. COLONEL

Chris was motivated to serve his country when the first Gulf War broke out. He became an officer and as a pilot moved his way up to Lt. Colonel. Dr. Chris was a graduate of the Top Gun Fighter Surgeon School, both in F-16's (2001) and F-15's (1995). Chris has had several international deployments.

FAMILY MAN

Chris is happily married to Sue. Together they have eight year old twins. Chris is very involved with helping to coach swim meets, and he and his family are avid outdoor enthusiasts from hiking to cave exploration.
